

Criteria for entry to the Drugs Court

- Adults over the age of 18, motivated to change.
- Non-violent offenders, charged with possession of drugs for personal use or whose offending is considered principally motivated by drug dependence.
- The types of substance abuse considered include but are not limited to, cocaine, cannabis, benzodiazepines. Medical supervision for the purpose of stabilisation and detoxification may be required for some participants.
- Abstinence and rehabilitation is the desired outcome for inclusion, individual care plans will support all aspect of recovery.

Let Us
Help You

Louth Drug
Treatment Court

